- There will be 3 parent-night-outs with babysitters (like evening souk tour, dinner, etc).
- We will have the same transportation each day so the car seats can stay in the vehicle
- I've also tried to balance out shorter days and longer days :)

Day 1. Arrive!

Arrive, get transferred from the Marrakech airport to the riad, get situated, go for a swim, get some snacks, etc

(airport transfer included)

Day 2: The Ranch

After a full day of travel Fri/Sat to get to Marrakech, today we'll get to spend time outdoors and explore a farm/wildlife park (with over 100 species of animals!), have some freedom, and eat REALLY WELL!

Parents will get to do a cooking class (think: traditional tagine! YUM!)

The kids will enjoy the farm, milk cows, pick-up eggs and learn more about the farm eco system in Morocco.

We'll all eat the food the parents cooked and enjoy additional activities after lunch!

Day 3: City Tour

This day we'll explore the highlights of Marrakech!

- The Madrasa Ben Youssef...a beautiful architectural old school of the 14th century where young Moroccan used to study!
- Jamaa Lafna Square... the most famous squares in Marrakech, with LOTS of activity happening around it
- Palais Bahia ... One of the oldest palaces in Morocco with a fun picture scavenger hunt to keep the kids' interest!

Then, have an amazing lunch at Chef Moha's restaurant– he's one of the major Chefs in Morocco and he is the judge of the TV series Master Chef Maroc!

Next, some play time in the Menara Gardens so the kids can run off some steam.

Parents night out #1: we have sitters for the kids in the evening (movie night!) and parents go to dinner! :)

Day 4: Visit a school day!

Kids will have the chance to visit a local school... they'll learn some Arabic and get to help the Moroccan kids learn some English! Yay for a cultural and linguistic exchange!

In the afternoon we'll do a pottery and calligraphy workshop!

Tonight...parent's night out #2! Kids will have a henna night with a dance class. Parents will visit Jamaa Lafna by night

Day 5: Atlas Mountains Day!

First stop - the Anima Gardens...it has all of these fun sculptures and is full of imaginarieness for the kids. Per the NYT “A Wonderland of exotic gardens, gazebos, ponds and mystical artworks”

Then, we go to the Ourika Valley for lunch along a river...

Then a short hike, and a visit to the OLDEST Berber house in the region where we'll have some lovely Moroccan tea!

...and if there's enough time, the kids will get to do some painting!!

Tonight: PJ party for the kids...and they'll practice their dance for the closing dinner! Parents have the night out (#3)!

Day 6: Marrakech Souks!

Today we'll have a scavenger hunt in the Souks of Marrakech so that kids will have things to find and engage with the locals!

The afternoon may end up being more leisurely... tbd as it gets figured out Tonight we'll have a fun closing dinner at the riad, complete with a belly dancing class :). Get ready!!!!

Day 7: Off to the Agafay Desert!

We'll have a little slower start to the day than normal...

Get packed up and then onto the bus for the 1hr ride to the desert glamping location we'll call home for the next two nights :)!!!!

We'll be able to swim and go hiking – and have a magical camel ride at sunset :)! Get those cameras ready!!!

Day 8: Desert fun & kayaking!

We'll have time in the morning for relaxing (swimming, walks, etc) and experiencing the desert...

And then after lunch, we'll head to Lake Lalla Taferkoust (say that 10 times fast!) for kayaking! Woohoo!

Then back to camp for a lovely last dinner with all our friends before we part ways the next day!

Day 9: Transfer to airport and fly home

Airport transfer included

About the accommodations

There will be two (very) different accommodations

1. A hammam riad in the heart of the medina (old part) of Marrakesh. There are only ~11 rooms, so even though our group doesn't actually have the entire riad, it may feel like we do if we're taking up 5 or 6 of the rooms. - It's also a spa/hammam so they offer massages, scrubs, and other spa-y things :)

2. A desert glamping Camp in the Agafay Desert :)!!!
